

The Solutions Network

Rochester, New York

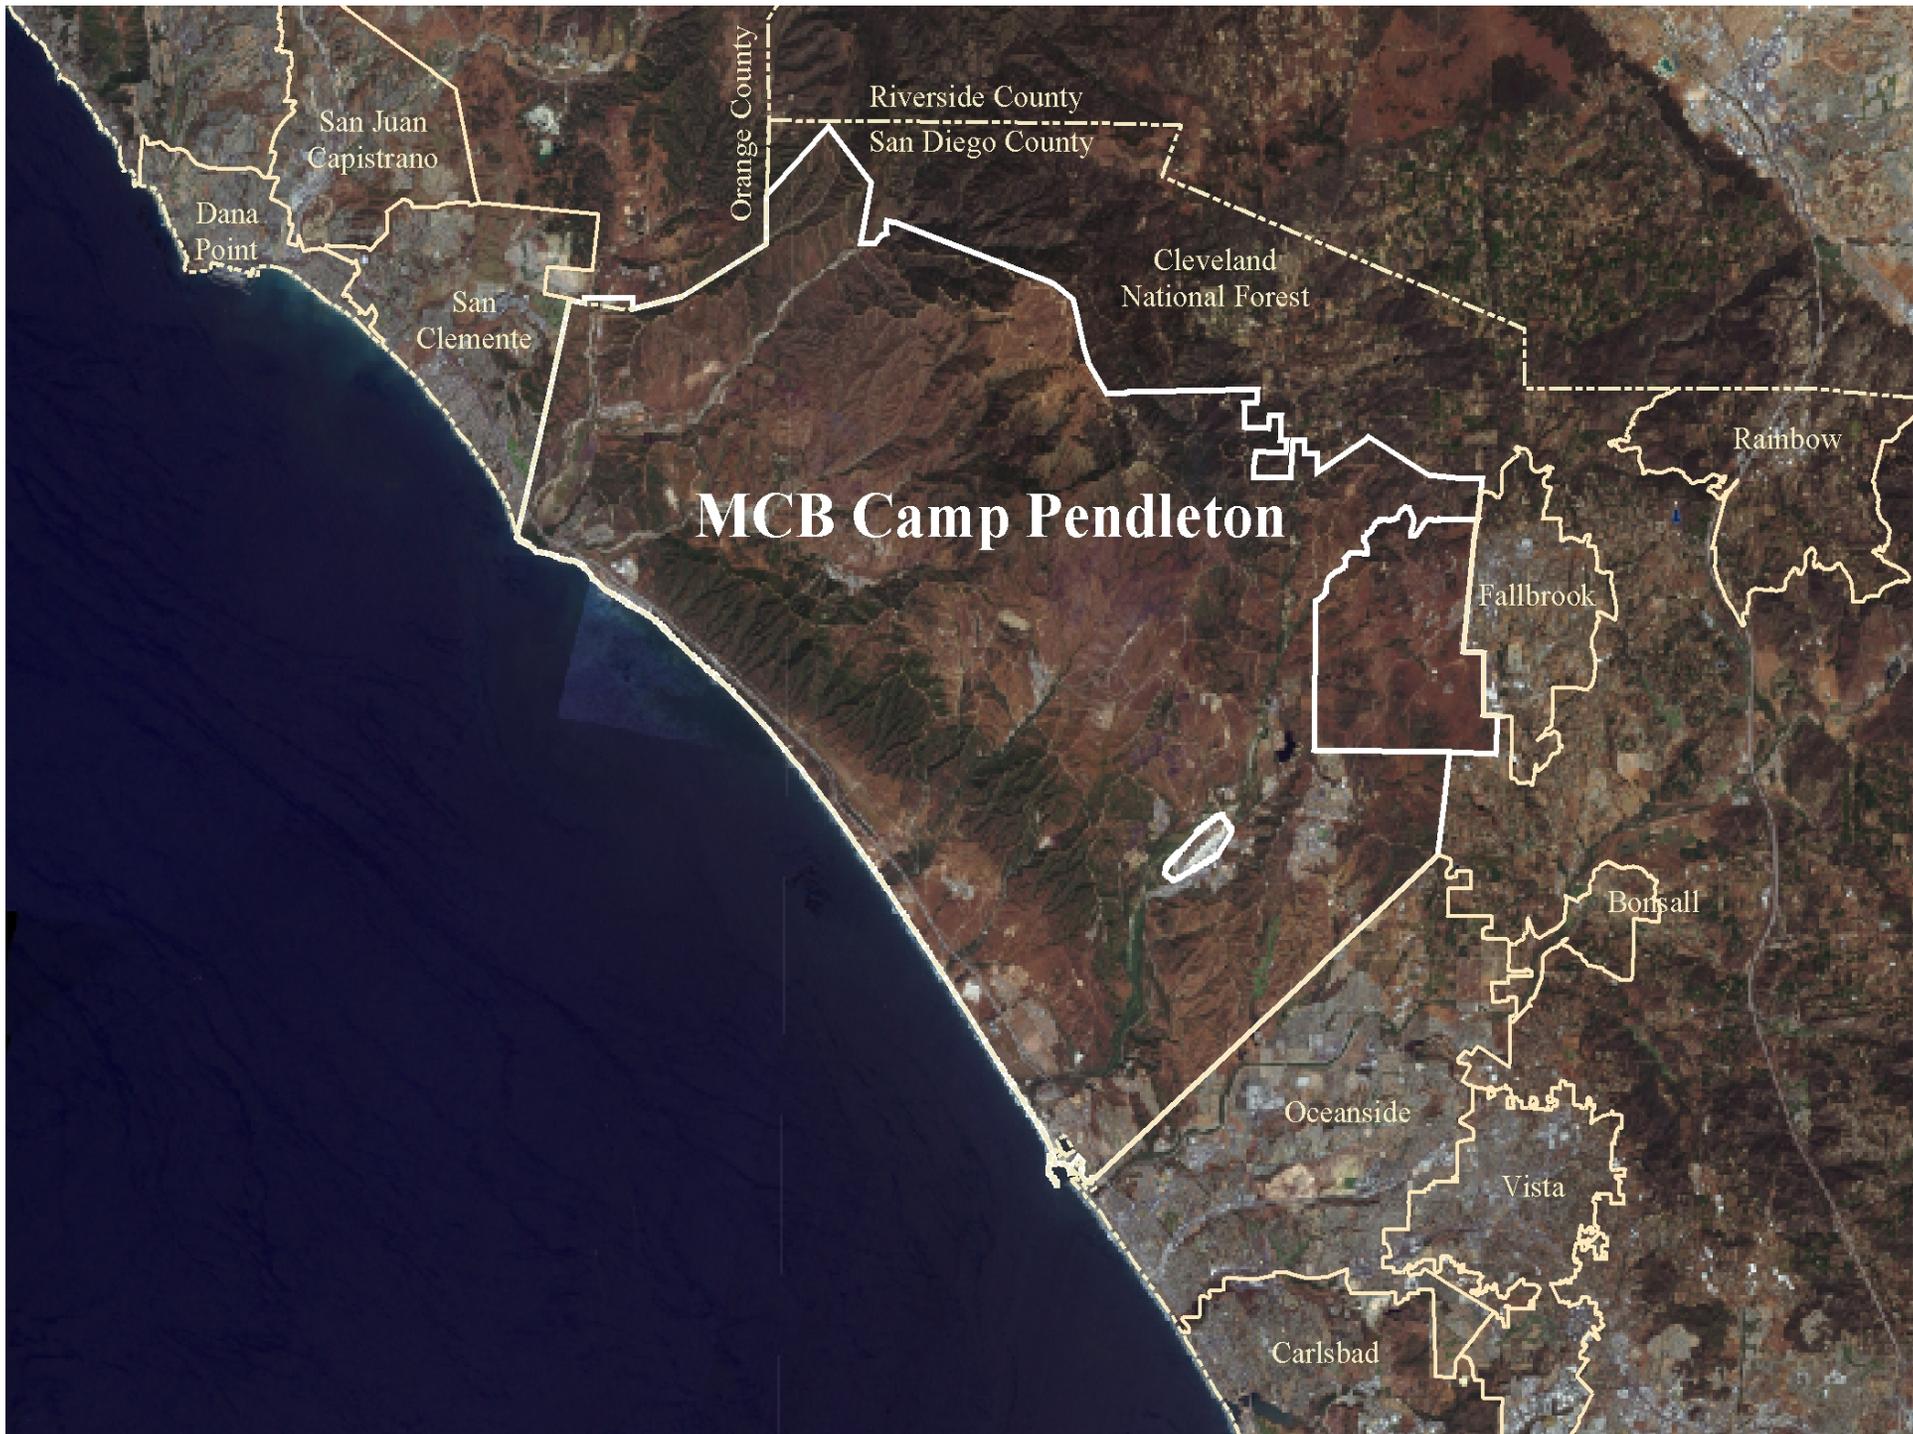

Renewable Power Combining Energy, Safety and Anti- Terrorism Protection

Randy Monohan M.B.A., C.E.M.

Marine Corps Base Camp Pendleton

Monohanrj@pendleton.usmc.mil

(760) 725 - 0566

MCB Camp Pendleton

Dana Point
San Juan Capistrano

San Clemente

Orange County

Riverside County
San Diego County

Cleveland National Forest

Fallbrook

Rainbow

Bonsall

Oceanside

Vista

Carlsbad

GETTING THE WORD OUT

- ❖ In 2002 the Base developed a pilot solar project consisting of 12 solar lights, 8 streetlights and 4 flashing beacons
 - Base Safety
 - Commanding General

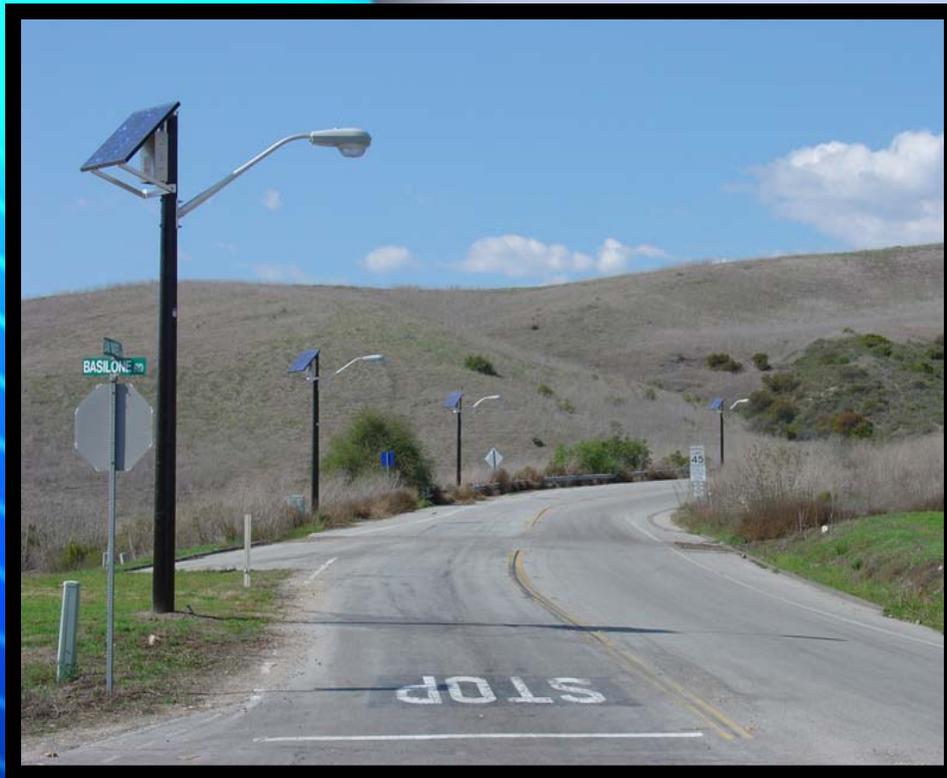

August 8-11, 2004

www.energy2004.ee.doe.gov

ENERGY & SAFETY

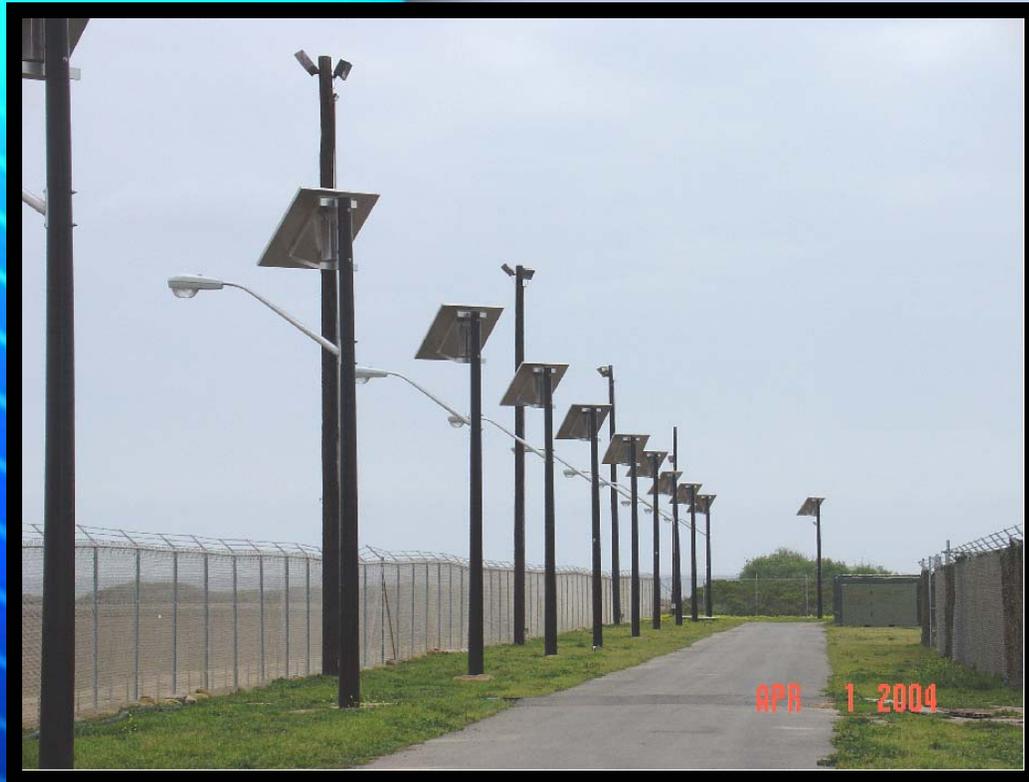

- ❖ During 2003, as part of an UESC, 112 solar lights were installed

August 8-11, 2004

www.energy2004.ee.doe.gov

SOLAR LIGHTS

- ❖ Also during 2003, the Base used in-house funds to purchase 95 additional solar lights for anti-terrorism protection and for use as primary lighting, with 1,000 watt MH lights as backup
- ❖ More than 200 solar lights were installed Base wide

2004 Energy

August 8-11, 2004

www.

The Solutions Network

Rochester, New York

Thank You

Any Questions?